Yalikavak

A small town on the Bodrum peninsula which is a much sought after resort and is still a thriving fishing village with many sponge divers among its residents. Windmills are one of the symbols of Yalikavak. When you arrive at the location where the windmills stand the views across the horizon will impress as you will witness completely green scenery on one side and amazing panoramic views across the bay on the other side. The town is neat and tidy and many old buildings have undergone restoration to modern use which makes it an attractive place for those who care for both old and new. There is a pretty harbour which is surrounded by restaurants and bars and the atmosphere is quiet, unhurried and relaxing. The centre of the town is closed to traffic to allow you to wander through the many shops and small cafe. Close to the new marina you will find many fish restaurants offering delicious fresh daily catch. The resort is only 20 minutes drive to the centre of Bodrum
